Kurzbeschreibung The most definitive account of the Suez affair to date, based on newly opened archives. Mr. Freiberger argues that the crisis was only the culmination of long American irritation with British imperialism in the Middle East. Commendable...this book breaks new ground. William B. Quandt, Foreign Affairs
Pressestimmen Thoroughly researched...an impressive feat.--E. Timothy Smith "The Historian" Freiberger's book takes its right place in the burgeoning literature on the Suez crisis...a distinct contribution.--Michael Graham Fry
Andrew Gold "Intelligence and National Security" Persuasive and assertive...a valuable addition on the troubled subject.--Douglas Little "American History" An excellent and provocative book!--Lloyd C. Gardner, author of Approaching Vietnam
