Excellent Study of the Sermon on the Mount Von Ein Kunde This book is an excellent study of Jesus's Sermon on the Mount found in Matthew. The book is divided up into nine weeks, five days per week, making each reading of manageable size and comprehension. I especially appreciated spaces to journal or take notes within each reading...whether it's to mark your thoughts, answer a question or to write a prayer. I read this Bible study on my own, and afterwards in a group. The book even has a group discussion section at the end. The Sermon on the Mount has so many profound, life affecting things to say, and Kay Arthur is so good at making it apply to your daily life.
