KurzbeschreibungAfter the defeat of Custer, June 25, 1876, thousands of Lakota Sioux went to Canada to escape the American army. Their leaders included Sitting Bull, Four Horns, and the two famous Lakota Chiefs with the name "Black Moon". After Crazy Horse was killed while in American custody, hundreds of his followers also went to Canada. Starvation forced most of the Lakota back to the United States within five years; but over 200 stayed in Canada, where their descendants live today. This is their story.
